Badalona, 20-29 October 2023

The FILMETS Badalona Film Festival is an international short film festival that showcases fiction, animation and documentary films. The programme is selected on the basis of rigorous artistic, technical and screenwriting criteria.

The FILMETS Badalona Film Festival is organised and produced by Badalona Comunicació SA. Its Organising Committee comprises the following members:

Josep Viñeta Balsells, CEO

Agustí Argelich, Artistic Director

Esther Marquès, Productions Director

Jordi Coloma, Technical Director

Jordi Martí, Commercial and Communication Director

David González, Special Sessions Director

PARTICIPATION

Any short film not previously released at the FILMETS Badalona Film Festival may participate. Unreleased short films are those that have not been programmed in the Official Section of the FILMETS Badalona Film Festival.

Registration will be carried out online according to the technical terms and conditions of these rules and regulations.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

All short films registered for the festival must have the permission and copyright assignment of the right holder and any other right holder of original pre-existing works included in the short film.

By accepting and agreeing to comply with these rules, participants make a sworn declaration that the short film they submit does not infringe any rights associated with intellectual or industrial property, usage, honour, privacy, image, third parties, or any current legislation.

The festival organisers accept no legal liability for the short films submitted to the festival or their content.

The makers of the short films registered for the festival assign their public screening rights for all the sessions organised during the event.

Badalona Film Festival

The filmmakers of films entered into the Official Section, and therefore included in the festival's official programme, assign the right to screen their film during the FILMETS programme produced by Televisió de Badalona. The FILMETS programme will be broadcast by television channels attached to the Xarxa de Comunicació Local (Local Communication Network) on any distribution platform and geo-blocked to Spain.

The makers of the short films awarded Venus of Badalona awards also assign their rights for two screenings to be broadcast by the television channel Televisió de Catalunya.

The filmmakers authorise the festival organisers to use and publicise the names of the director, cast members and technical team of participating films to promote the festival via any communications medium.

The rights will be assigned for a period of two years starting from the date on which the current edition of the festival ends.

The organisers reserve the right to partially (selected frames) or fully use the short films in the Official Section to promote or publicise the festival - in no instance seeking commercial or financial gain. They also reserve the right to release a maximum 30-second-long trailer or clip of all the short films in the Official Section, which will be broadcast on the festival's website and social media platforms for the same purpose.

Once registration has been completed, participants must submit at least two high-resolution photographs by email to be included in the official catalogue. Other material considered of interest (posters, flyers, etc.) may also be submitted.

Participation in the festival implies full acceptance of these rules and regulations.

The Organising Committee reserves the right to settle any issue not provided for in these rules and regulations. Its decision will be final.
